I'm all for the ENVIRONMENT, but every time I wash my hands in a public bathroom and turn around to find a HAND DRYER instead of a PAPER TOWEL DISPENSER i die a little.

You do realize that hand dryers are meant to save people from throwing away millions of paper towels into dump mounds, right?

Person C Replying to Person A I Agreedo! And I professionally doubt whether the blow drier using power is truly more environmentally sound that the n'the generation recycled paper in paper towels.
